FAIR HISTORY

★ OZAUKEE COUNTY FAIR • SINCE 1859 ★

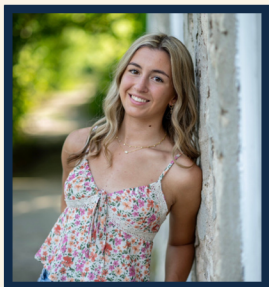

The Ozaukee County Fair traces its roots back to January 31, 1859, when local citizens formed the Ozaukee County Agricultural Society with the goal of promoting agriculture, horticulture, mechanical arts, and household skills throughout the County. Later that year, the first Fair was held in Cedarburg, making it one of Wisconsin's longest-running County Fairs. Despite challenges such as the Great Depression, when the official Fair was canceled in 1933 and replaced by a 4-H Fair, the event has continued to bring together residents for more than 166 years.

Looking to the future, the Ozaukee County Fair is well-positioned to continue serving as a bridge between the County's agricultural heritage and its modern community.

The Ozaukee County Fair is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization, producing a free gate admission Fair due to the support of generous sponsors & volunteers.
